A.A. Above All Else

We are a group of sober alcoholics that love sobriety and we have been blessed with this freedom by the program of Alcoholics Anonymous.

Our life is enriched by working the A.A. program and by sharing our experience, strength and hope with one another.

Our primary purpose is to carry this message to other alcoholics and we are encouraged by the friendships we have developed in our recovery. The only requirement is a desire to stop drinking.

We adhere to the 12 Traditions and have fun in doing so.

Remember Rule 62,

“We take our recovery very serious but we are not so serious about ourselves”.

We encourage all to share on the weekly topic but we also encourage fun and friendly cross talk and off topic discussions.

We post a monthly Roll Call to maintain a current and accurate membership list and we are currently limited to 30 members.

Personal criticism or antagonistic behavior will not be tolerated.

If you would like to be a part of our family,
then join us on our journey to happy destiny.

For information contact: jan@rosenet.net

AA Action Is the Key

We are a group of men and women who accept that the key to sobriety is in taking the simple action stated in the 12 Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous exactly as written without analysis or interpretation. We are not intellectual analyzers we just do it. We post a topic each week and all members are expected to share their experience, strength and hope relative to the topic.

But, we are not a glum lot. In addition to the topic we also discuss whatever is on our minds. Lots of chat, cross talk and clean humor. Laughter is the best medicine and we do joke a lot. We take our sobriety seriously but not ourselves. We have great camaraderie, we like each other and no personal criticism of others or arguments are tolerated. We are lovers not fighters.

If this approach to sobriety appeals to you and you are willing to share your experience, strength, and hope on each topic, each week, or if you have questions, contact:

Pete at peteald@aol.com or Pat at aa_pat@hotmail.com

AAustralia

AAustralia is an email group for Australian members of Alcoholics Anonymous whether living in Australia or anywhere in the world. A place to keep in contact with old friends and make new — we have regular scheduled topics, including Steps and Traditions, newcomers welcomed, and members are encouraged to share “off-topic” recovery related stories and life experiences.

To subscribe, send an email with your name (first name only required) and your location .. (State if in Australia) to

Jane: janeb@grantcreek.com or Della B: deloresb@msn.com.au

AA Always Remain Teachable

We are a small group that encourages sharing of both AA related material and general conversation.

We feel that by being somewhat aware of the happenings in each others lives we can best learn how to apply AA's principles in all our affairs.

This is an excellent group for those who are overwhelmed by large groups or who want to be in a close-knit group.

The group does not allow flaming.

Our primary purpose is to carry this message to other alcoholics and we adhere to the 12 Traditions.

We are serious about recovery, but we try not to take ourselves too seriously.

We welcome all who have a desire not to drink.

Contact: Renee hank_renee@juno.com to join us.

Please include the statement that you have a desire not to drink in your email.

AACoffeeShop

AACoffeeShop@yahoo.com has no affiliation with anything other than AA and the steps, traditions and concepts for world service.

AA Delaware Online

Closed meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous, founded by a Delawarean who loves to meet AAers from all parts. The only requirement for membership is a desire to stop drinking. Membership does have to be approved by the group's moderator and approval depends only on a reply to an automatic message sent to all who attempt to join and which asks only about your adherence to the third tradition. If you don't know what the third tradition is, just tell me why you want to be a member of AADelawareOnline. If you don't want to drink anymore, we would love to have you as a member of our group.

Write to moderator: AADelawareOnline-owner@yahoo.com

AA Firm Believers

We are a group of fun loving alcoholics who are serious about the solution that we have found by actively working the 12 Steps of Alcoholics Anonymous. We utilize the steps; we do not analyze them.

We are unified by the spirit of our fellowship in recovery, and we are strengthened by regularly sharing our experience, strength, and hope with each other. We adhere to the 12 Traditions and we have fun in the process.

Though sharing on the weekly topic is expected, we have a lot of fun spirited cross talk and off topic discussions. Personal criticism or flaming of any kind is strictly prohibited. We look at Principles, not Personalities.

If you have decided you want what we have and are willing to share on a weekly basis, then give us a try.

Come, be a part of our joyful journey.

Cybriety 6

We need folks who would enjoy sharing about every week on an AA topic of the week. We are a small group which makes and more private and which has the advantage of that your time would not be taken up with reading lots of shares everyday.
Contact: Mary maryh91756@aol.com to subscribe or for more information.

Cybriety 7

C7 is a women's meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous, which takes place via email. All meetings and business are conducted in adherence to the Steps and Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous. Thus there are no dues or fees for membership, nor are we allied with any sect, denomination, politics or religion.
The C7 does not wish to engage in any controversy, neither endorses nor opposes any causes. Our primary purpose is to stay sober and help other female alcoholics to achieve sobriety. All decisions affecting C7 are made by group-conscience.
For more detailed information, please contact the IGR.

Daily Reprieve

We are open to anyone with a desire to stop drinking. The discussion group is based on the Steps, Traditions, Concepts and Promises as outlined in AA's Conference-approved literature.
The e-mail addresses of any members who post to our group are kept hidden in an attempt to ensure each person's anonymity.

The format of the group is as follows:

- 1st Thurs of the month, Step
- 2nd Thurs of the month, Tradition
- 3rd Thurs of the month, Concept
- 4th Thurs of the month, Promises
- 5th Thurs of the month (if any), open topic selected by "chair"

It is suggested that in discussing each topic some reference is made to the literature, but this is not a requirement for participation.

The group can be reached at DailyReprieve@yahoogroups.com or by contacting soberchick12595@yahoo.com

Eleventh Step Group

An Alcoholics Anonymous email group where daily meditations are posted, plus weekly step/tradition leads. The only requirement is a desire to stop drinking. Hope to see you there :)
For more information or to join the group, please send an Email to: eleventhstep-subscribe@egroups.com

E-mail Does It

We are an email group of men and women, an AA group that adheres to AA's 12 Steps, 12 Traditions, and 12 Concepts. The chairperson sends out a topic to all on Saturdays. Members respond during the following week.

Our purpose is to provide a supportive place for AA people to share on recovery. We adhere to The Third Tradition. Our group is limited to 40 members. Though sharing on the weekly topic is expected, we have a lot of fun spirited cross talk and off topic discussions. We look at Principles, not Personalities. Personal criticism or flaming of any kind is strictly prohibited. If you have decided you want what we have and are willing to share on a weekly basis, then give us a try. Come, be a part of our Happy, Joyous and Free Adventure.

To join or for more information, contact: Mark L. tresdias72@yahoo.com

Grateful Dead Email AA Group

Grateful Dead Email AA Group is an online group of people from all over the world — we are members of AA (or AA and NA) — always newbie's and lots of long timers, too. New topics are posted regularly. Rigidity is not our cup of tea. We care a lot about life and each other. God's not through with us yet.

New Beginnings E-Mail Sobriety Groups

Closed email groups of men and women, limited to 40 members per group. We feel that the 40-member cap allows the group to get to know each other in a more personal way. We celebrate birthdays, laughs, and the ups and downs of sober living. There is a weekly topic for discussion, chosen by the month's chairperson. Each group has its own officers and representative with the Online Intergroup of Alcoholic Anonymous. Roll calls are done periodically to verify membership with the group and touch base with those who have been quiet for a while. We consider New Beginnings to be more than just a meeting— we are a family.

Recovering in AA

We are a small Women's Only Group who share their E.S.H. on a daily basis. We adhere strictly to the traditions, however, we do add a little rule #62 to the mix which is having fun. We are different from other groups in that we allow html. and stationery to make our shares prettier.

You will find us a very safe place to share and the only requirement is a desire to stop drinking. If you are new to online AA, please give us a try, we think you will be happy you did.

RecoveringinAA@yahoogroups.com

Please write to the email address above or directly to Marge: msparshu@vennercs.com to become a member of our group. Thank you.

Rainbow Recovery

A year-old online group for gay and lesbian members of AA is the Rainbow Recovery. It is a closed group, full name required for registration but not revealed to any one. As at all AA groups, no charge, but there is an annual request for $2/year Seventh Tradition to help pay for the server system.

Contact Ben ben@queernet.org to subscribe or for further information. Be sure to say the name of the list — gayaagroup or rainbow — and send it from where you receive email. Include your full name.

Contact Trudgers trudgers-request@maelstrom.stjohns.edu to subscribe or for further information.

Women in the Solution (WITS)

WITS is a closed online women's group of Alcoholics Anonymous. Our email meeting has two topics a week. In keeping with AA's singleness of purpose, we confine our discussions to recovery from alcoholism. One topic is taken from material written and approved as AA literature; the second topic is a "General Topic Discussion." All AA-related off topic shares are also welcome. The topics run concurrently, 24/7. Our group adheres to the 12 Steps and the 12 Traditions of Alcoholics Anonymous. For all other discussion not directly related to AA, we maintain a separate list (WITS-Coffee Talk) for posting of topics of a more general nature, i.e., other 12-step programs, meditations, general announcements, etc. We also have real-time chat meetings to address issues related to recovery from alcoholism.

Please contact WomenInTheSolution-subscribe@yahoogroups.com to subscribe or for further info.

Women of Islam

AA group for women of Islam faith, cultural heritage, ancestry, immigrant, citizen of USA, or otherwise that believe they have a problem with alcohol and or other drugs and need to reach out for help. This is a safe place to find others in a similar situation who have the same religious and cultural barriers to finding support. AA does not question your religious beliefs, nor does it subscribe them. This group is for women of like minds and religious faith to find a solution and support if they think they have a drinking problem.
